How this claim worked: an outpatient surgery

- Two procedures on Oct 7. The medical group billed $3,313 (1).
- The First Health network discount took off $3,079.25 (2), so they were owed just $233.75.
- ManhattanLife paid them that $233.75 directly. She owed $0.
- Her plan's surgery benefit for the two procedures was $1,036.77 (3). The rest, $803.02, came to her (4).

Note: paid even though it fell in the pre-existing condition period. ManhattanLife said it may review future claims in that window.
